More info and registration forms are available from Elisabeth Hazell at 250-592-5323 x32 or ehazell@thecastle.ca.

Modern day Silhouette art: Monday, March 12th 2-4 p.m. $25 + $5 materials fee (payable to instructor.) Here is your chance to participate in an updated version of the beautiful Victorian craft of silhouette making. Bring some of your favorite photos to class and learn how to turn them into art. What the students need to bring: favorite photos with interesting poses, $5.00 to cover the cost of course materials

Introduction to Hand-Stitched Embroidery: Wednesday, March 14th 2-4 p.m. $25 + $5 materials fee. Embroidering is like painting with thread, in Victorian times women used embroidery to liven up their favorite dresses, pillow cases, and various accessories like purses and shoes. It was a way to express individuality and turn an ordinary item into something to be treasured. This course will provide you with the basic techniques to create a piece of embroidered art to hang on your wall or give as a gift. Come ready to learn how to paint with thread. What to bring: A small pair of sharp fabric scissors + $5.

Introduction to Knitting (make a scarf): Friday, March 16th 2-4 p.m. $25 – BYO needles & yarn Knitting has always been a beautiful way to make clothing out of string. Come to the castle to learn the basics and get started on your very own small knitting project. We will cover the basics to getting started and finishing a project. We will learn how to 'read' the stitches and correct any mistakes as we go along. What the students need to bring: one pair of US size 8 knitting needles, one ball of worsted weight yarn (ie: Red Heart, Loops and Thread, Vannah's Choice.)

Découpage: A Victorian era Pastime: Saturday, March 17th from 10 AM - 1pm $50: Découpage means to cut out. Like decorative a form of papier maché, this is a unique way to embellish something with beautiful paper. Decorate an object of your choice - box, plate or something else! Taught by Julia Andrews.

Introduction to crochet (make a headband): Monday, March 19th 2-4 p.m. $25 (BYO hook & yarn.) Crochet was used in Victorian times not only to create beautiful lace-like articles of clothing but to add embellishment to many items in their homes such as bead spreads, pillow cases, and trim for pieces of clothing. Together we will cover the basics of crochet learning how to 'read' our projects and create something by hand with a hook and yarn...probably a headband or a scarf. What you need to bring: one 6mm crochet hook, one ball of worsted weight yarn (ie red heart, loops and thread, Vannah's choice.)

Victorian Stencil Art (design and print your own stencil): Wed. March 21st 2-4 p.m. $25 + $10 materials fee. Learn this popular Victorian-era craft. Stencilling is an excellent way to create a beautiful piece of art or embellish something without having to have particular skill in either drawing or painting. Come to the castle to create a fun stencilled project by creating and then using a stencil of your own design. We will be stencilling tote bags and creating art to hang on the wall. If you would like to bring in a t-shirt to add a picture to feel free. What the students need to bring: $10.00 for the cost of materials, one exacto knife, any personal article of clothing they will to embellish.

Teacups into Pincushions (create a custom pincushion!): Friday, March 23rd 2-4 p.m. $25 – (Bring your own Teacup) This class is an opportunity to turn a pretty teacup and saucer into a beautiful pincushion to use or give as a gift. We will not only be making the pin cushion but creating our very own one of a kind pins to go with the cushion. Come to the castle to be creative and walk away with something beautiful. What the students need to bring: One teacup (saucer optional) of their choosing, $5.00 for cost of materials.

Scrapbooking: This Victorian craft is now in a renaissance! Saturday March 24th from 10 AM - 1pm $50 + Bring your own BOOK to fill with beautiful papers and photographs. Bring your photos and we'll supply some bonus papers and materials to decorate your scrapbook with! A great idea for a birthday gift, or simply a keepsake!
